

Belize News | Top Stories

December 12, 2011

UNIBAM Case Continues to Cause Controversy

News 7 Belize reports on the continuing controversy over UNIBAM's constitutional challenge of Section 53 of the Criminal Code of Belize. Many religious groups in

Belize continue to speak out against the case as it's supporters defend their position. View the complete story at News 7 Belize | UNIBAM Case Adjourned

Treaty Energy Corporation Releases Letter to Shareholders Concerning Belize Oil Drilling Project

Treaty Energy Corporation announced they had released a letter to shareholders. The letter is essentially a progress report of their Texas and Belize oil drilling projects. View the complete letter at The Sacramento Bee | Treaty Energy Corporation Letter to Shareholders

Lord Neil Gibson Discusses Rebuilding Belize Infrastructure

Lord Neil Gibson, a professional who has contributed positive change to many parts of the world, is turning his focus to Belize. There is discussion of Lord Neil Gibson utilizing business ventures to "contribute to the development of communities and infrastructure within the country of Belize." View the complete story at Digital Journal | Lord Neil Gibson

Has Partnered with Financial Entities to Rebuild in Belize

In the News Today:

- UNIBAM divides Belize
- Red Cross' Peer Education Program
- CABO Leadership Back in Belize
- High Level Delegation Visits Chiquibul

Check back at belizedragonfly.com under News to get a daily update of what is happening in Belize